

Regulations

1. Saturday June 23rd June from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm, 'A Caccia dei 7 Principi' will take place, a treasure hunt to discover the 7 Fundamental Principles, through the historical places of the Red Cross.
2. The treasure hunt will take place at Solferino.
3. The aim of the game will be to find the 7 torches, each one corresponding to a Fundamental Principle.
4. Registration will be held in the section dedicated to Solferino 2018 (INSERT LINK). They will close on June 18th by 11:00 pm. Registration is individual.
5. The teams will be defined by a draw before the start of the Treasure Hunt (Saturday 23rd at 9:00).
6. Up to 10 (ten) teams are admitted to the competition (each team of 5 (five) participants). The minimum number of teams admitted is 5(five).
7. Each team will pick a captain who must report on behalf of the team with the judge.
8. Each team will be identified with a color also shown on the badge.
9. The departure will take place at 9:30 and the first clue will be delivered.
10. Each stage will include the presence of a competition judge. The judges will have the task of monitoring the event and will assume the honor and responsibility to manage it in a transparent manner in order to safeguard the success of the event.
11. A maximum time of 3(three) hours will be provided for the total solution of the enigmas.
12. The team that will recover more torches in less time will have won the treasure hunt.
13. The tests must be carried out exclusively by the members of the team, otherwise the answers will be canceled.
14. A participation prize will be given to each member.
15. The members of the winning team will receive a special prize.
16. The award ceremony of the winners will take place in the afternoon at Piazza del Castello in Solferino

Further logistical details will be communicated upon departure.